Dayton-Wright Brothers Airport is inviting the community to the fourth annual Runway Fest -- a family friendly night of flight and fun celebrating the airport's 60th anniversary.

The airport's open house takes place on Friday, August 7, from 6:00 p.m. to 10:00 p.m., at 10500 N. Springboro Pike. Admission and parking are free.

Runway Fest features aircraft displays, airplane rides, a hot air balloon launch, live performances by classic rock trio Rock-O-Sonics, inflatables for the kids, roving entertainers, food trucks and more. Festivities will end with a bang when a Rozzi Fireworks display lights up the night sky at 9:30 p.m.

"Runway Fest is quickly becoming one of the Dayton region's favorite summer events," said Terry Slaybaugh, City of Dayton director of aviation. "It's an opportunity for us to work together and give back to the community, while showcasing a true regional asset for residents and businesses."

Visitors may bring lawn chairs or blankets, but coolers, pets, alcoholic beverages or outside food and beverages are not permitted. Firearms and weapons are not permitted on airport property.

For safety purposes, it is suggested that visitors park at the airport and do not attempt to walk across busy area roads.

Dayton-Wright Brothers Airport is a general aviation airport owned and operated by the City of Dayton.

The City of Dayton Department of Aviation, Miami Township, Commander Aero, and ASI are working together to organize the event.
